Hong Kong Lesbian and Gay Film Festival 2015

During this year's HKLGFF, the Red Ribbon Centre (RRC) supported screening of an HIV-related film "Alive! (HEHE 跳傘隊)", a series of film sharing sessions in university campuses, and a photo exhibition in the University of Hong Kong.

The HKLGFF kick-started on 19 September 2015 with an opening ceremony in that evening. The film "Alive! (HEHE 跳傘隊)", was first screened on 27 September and the second screening will take place in the evening on 3 October.

The first film sharing session of the HKLGFF campus tour was held at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University in the evening on 15 September. Five LGBT- or AIDS-related films were screened, followed by a sharing and discussion forum with guest speaker Mr Roland Leung (梁梓禧先生), TV show producer and host, actor and writer.

The second session was held in the University of Hong Kong (HKU) in the evening on 21 September. Two guest speakers were invited, Dr Travis S.K. Kong, Associate Professor, and Dr Denise Tse-Shang Tang, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, HKU. During the discussion, attendees shared their views on the HIV situation among gays, and sex education in primary and secondary schools.

Concurrently there is a photo exhibition “Queers of Hong Kong” by the Department of Sociology of HKU (and it will last until early October). Around 30 photos of LGBTQ people from all walks of life are displayed, each photo with a unique message or story specific to the person. Five photos regarding how the HIV infected patients see their lives are also exhibited.
